Our French mates

We communicate with our friends in France by using E-twinning.

We have a partnership with a French school called Tremolieres through an E-twinning project.

We have been communicating with them through E-twinning. E-twinning is a social media where you can communicate with other schools in Europe.

There are 14 members from the French school that we communicate with.

In Tremolieres they have healthy food in their canteen, and the pupils enjoy it. In the school they have an education adviser who helps them to choose gymnasium, talk to them about their education and what grade they have to reach to be able to go to a certain gymnasium.

The school has many different educations to choose between for example art, science and Latin.

Winter

The children in the first up to third grade were invited by the Culture school in Stockholm, to a musical called winter.

As you hear from the name of the musical, it is about the season winter. The children really enjoyed the show and they thought that the best part was the music. One guy in the secondgrade thought the actors looked stupid but in a funny way. The person who had the main character was a snow man. They had ten shows in January.

The Culture school is a school were you can choose different education skills as dance, music, theater and art. The culture school is just a name of an institution that consists of different schools. It's the biggest culture school in Europe, with the possibility for fifteen thousand students to attend classes. The school is sponsored by the community of Stockholm.

4th-9th graders visited Slottskyrkan in Stockholm

Princess Madeleine and prince Chris got married in Slottskyrkan. Slottskyrkan is in the middle of Stockholm city nearby the castle. The word “kyrka” in Swedish means church in English and “slott” means castle.

We were there to listen to Adolf Fredrik’s music school and a couple of singers from Switzerland. The concert was about one hour long.

We also interviewed two students from the 5th grade and this is their opinion:

-We didn’t like that we had to sit there for so long because it was boring.

99% of the kids agreed.

-We wouldn’t like to go there again, they said. The interior was beautiful late 17th century. And we liked the art.

The pupils from our school didn’t recognize any of the composers or songs that were performed, but we recognized some of the musical instruments that were used there for example cello, viol, guitar, trumpet, trombone, piano, flute, saxophone.

Chess Four competition

The 4th grade in English school is going to play Chess Four against children from other schools from all over the country.

We interviewed four girls from the 4th grade about Chess Four.

They said that a man came to their classroom and showed them how to play. They will play in Globen on 12th March. You can participate even if you don’t know how to play.

The whole class will participate since you get a price no matter if you win or loose. They will get a Vikingline ticket. Vikingline is a cruise ship in the Baltic sea and you can do a lot of things onboard for example go to a disco, eat a lot of food, play games, go shopping, sing karaoke.

The winner will also get a cup of gold.

The children who compete play chess in their freetime and practice for the competition in school.

A person will say two names who will play against each other. There are many pairs who will play at the same time.

Last year in Chess Four there were about 3000 participants.

Canteen

There are two other schools who eat in the same canteen as we do. The people who work there serve the food and there is a table where you can take vegetables on your own. There is another table with bread and butter. They serve knäckebröd, crisp bread, which is a popular Swedish bread. The canteen is originally a restaurant but now they only serve food to pupils or people who attend classes near by. Its called Restaurant Ellen.
